Introduction from Treasurer Social Affairs Jean-Pierre Allet

Treasurer Social Affairs

"The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team." (Phil Jackson)

Dear IPA Friends,

In times like these, when the world seems shaken by turbulence, tragedy, and stories of darkness that reach us daily, it is easy to feel overwhelmed or divided. Yet it is precisely in such moments that unity becomes not just important, but essential.

Across nations, cultures, and uniforms, we are reminded that humanity's greatest strength lies in standing together. As members of the International Police Association, we share a bond that goes far beyond borders or headlines.

Our values - friendship, solidarity, service, and mutual respect are not abstract ideals; they are living principles that guide us, especially when the world around us feels uncertain.

While we cannot change every injustice or tragedy we witness, we can choose how we respond. We can choose compassion over indifference, dialogue over division, and friendship over fear. The IPA has always stood for "Servo per Amikeco – Service through Friendship", and today this message resonates more strongly than ever.

Friendship within the IPA is not merely a connection between colleagues; it is a promise. A promise to support one another, to listen, to help, and to remain united even when times are hard. It is this spirit that gives us strength – as police officers, as professionals, and above all, as human beings.

Let this newsletter be a reminder that despite the noise of the world, our shared values endure. Together, we carry responsibility, hope, and the conviction that by standing side by side, we can make a difference – within our association and beyond.

I would like to conclude with the following quote:

"It is in your hands to create a better world for all who live in it."
(Nelson Mandela)

Servo per Amikeco,
Your TS

IPA GAMES Registration Deadline Extended

IPA Games 2026 – Wrocław, Poland

1–15 May 2026

The International Police Association (IPA) is pleased to announce that the IPA Games 2026 will take place from 1 to 15 May 2026 in Wrocław, Poland.

This major international sporting event brings together IPA members from across the world to compete, connect, and celebrate friendship through sport.

Registration Deadline Extended

To allow more members and sections to take part, the registration deadline has been extended to 15 February 2026.

How to Get Involved

Members who wish to participate are encouraged to express their interest through their National Section, which will coordinate registrations and team entries. You do not need to be part of a national team to participate. Members may register individually, and international teams will be formed, ensuring everyone has the opportunity to compete and be part of the IPA Games experience.

Sports Disciplines

The following sports disciplines will be included in the IPA Games 2026: Football, Volleyball, Basketball, Table Tennis, Pistol Shooting (9mm), Running (5 km and 10 km), Chess, Judo. Other disciplines include Tennis, Swimming and Badminton.

Don't Miss This Opportunity

The IPA Games are not only about competition but also about international friendship, teamwork, and cultural exchange. Don't miss the chance to represent your section, meet colleagues from around the world, and be part of this exciting event in Poland.

For further details and registration information, please visit our website or contact your National Section.

IPA Spain UNiTE to End Violence Against Girls and Women

On November 25th, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, IPA Spain was invited to participate in the campaign "UNITE DIGITAL VIOLENCE AGAINST GIRLS AND WOMEN" held by the United Nations – UN Women.

Sixteen days of activism that started the same day, highlighting the importance of raising community awareness about this serious social problem. As a significant figure, it is worth mentioning that the number of reports in the second quarter of 2025 have increased by 2.69% compared to the previous year.

Acknowledging the importance of giving visibility to this project, IPA Madrid did not hesitate to support this initiative by creating, with the participation of the entire team, a public board on the UN Women website with various activities.

The first task carried out by José Barroso, was the creation of a poster emphasizing the suffering of harassment online victims. Expressive, tear-filled eyes of a woman alongside the words "Disconnect-t" is the best way to sketch this idea.

Afterward, two more posters were created with the help of AI, aimed at learning the most common expressions associated with cybercrimes. Our intention was to spark curiosity about the behaviours involved in each of the crimes described.

As the second part of the project, a citizens participation roundtable was set up in one of the hallways of IFISE (Institute for Comprehensive Training in Security and Emergencies of the Community of Madrid).

IPA Spain UNiTE to End Violence Against Girls and Women

On this roundtable, small orange ribbons were placed for participants to wear on their lapels, as well as blank cards that both students and professionals from the Law enforcement agencies could freely fill out, answering the question: What measures can be taken to combat cyber violence against girls and women?

In this case, the responses resulted in short phrases or slogans such as: "Use the internet to raise awareness, not to generate violence," "Treat women as if they were your own family," and "Education and shared family responsibility."

Among the law enforcement agencies, officers from different parts of Galicia, who were visiting the IFISE facilities at the time, showed interest in the participation table.

As the days went by, more slogans were added to the UN Women website, eventually reaching a total of 15. Likewise, our colleague Noelia uploaded an article referring to the role of the Madrid Municipal Police—particularly the work of School Tutor officers—in preventing digital gender violence against minors and young people from an educational, emotional and family perspective.

Last but not least, I can't thank enough everyone at IPA Madrid who helped me in my first experience with this international project. I would also express my gratitude for the special collaboration of Antonio Montejano, who created a song accompanied by images of women painted by himself.

Outside the Organisation group, I would like to thank altruistic collaborators such as Loli, Sara and Manu, who generously volunteered to create an awareness video about online dangers.

May our contribution serve to loudly declare that WE ARE AGAINST ALL FORMS OF VIOLENCE, ESPECIALLY THAT IS DIRECTED TOWARD THE MOST VULNERABLE PEOPLE. WE HOPE AN INTERCONNECTED WORLD, FREE OF CYBER THREATS. A MORE ORANGE ONE. This is the colour chosen by the United Nations to represent a brighter future free from violence, as well as a symbol of hope, energy and action to eradicate it.

Friendship Judo Week 2025

IPA Japan Section

From November 24 to 30, 2025, the Friendship Judo Week (FJW) was held at the Chiba Prefectural Police (CPP) Headquarters and YohaS Arena, a municipal sports facility in Chiba City, located about 40 kilometers east of Tokyo. The event was organized by IPA Japan Section with the full cooperation of the CPP. Seven participants from five countries—six men and one woman—with a wide range of judo levels, from a complete beginner to a third-degree black belt, had an invaluable opportunity to learn the spirit and techniques of authentic Japanese judo.

The four days of intensive judo practice began with an opening ceremony at the CPP Headquarters' dojo (martial arts training hall) on the morning of November 25. At the ceremony, Ms. Ayako Aoyama, Chief of the CPP, and Mr. Masahito Kanetaka, President of IPA Japan, welcomed the participants and offered words of encouragement, greatly stimulating their desire to learn judo.

Judo practice was mainly held at YohaS Arena and began with instruction on "Rei" (courtesy or etiquette) from Mr. Kazuya Iwashita, Deputy Chief Judo Instructor for the CPP. The participants listened attentively as he explained the importance of showing respect to opponents while practicing judo.

Subsequently, instructions were given throughout the sessions on posture, grappling, ukemi (falling techniques), throwing, and ground work. Time passed swiftly as the six judo instructors from the CPP taught with enthusiasm, careful attention to detail, and occasional humor. On November 27, the dojo's atmosphere was further heightened by the visit of Barcelona Olympic gold medalist Mr. Hidehiko Yoshida and the 1985 Italy International Judo Tournament gold medalist Mr. Kazumi Shin. The participants eagerly received advice from the two champions, with excited expressions on their faces.

In addition to judo practice, on November 26 the participants attended an Aikido session led by Mr. Fumiaki Matsuda, a member of IPA Japan, showcasing elegant and precise techniques. Thanks to arrangements made by the CPP, the participants also enjoyed a welcome concert by the police band and visited the CPP Headquarters and Chiba Chuo (Central) Police Station.

IPA Japan Section

On November 28, the judo practice sessions concluded with a graduation ceremony at the CPP Headquarters' dojo. During the ceremony, the participants demonstrated the skills they had acquired. As each participant performed dynamic throwing techniques in randori (free practice), a resounding round of applause echoed throughout the dojo. Certificates of completion were then presented to each participant by President of IPA Japan with a firm handshake.

A farewell party was held at a restaurant near YohaS Arena in the evening following the graduation ceremony. Numerous members of IPA Japan, senior CPP officers, and the judo instructors attended. Over food and drinks, the attendees praised the participants for their dedication over the four days, and all deepened their friendship beyond national boundaries, creating truly memorable moments.

On November 29, the participants went on a one-day excursion to Hakone, a renowned tourist destination, guided by members of IPA Japan Kanagawa Branch. On November 30, the FJW concluded as the participants departed the hotel where they had stayed, warmly seen off by members of IPA Japan Chiba Branch.

In conclusion, there is no doubt that the FJW was profoundly meaningful for the overseas participants, as they had the opportunity to receive direct instruction from Japanese judo experts. For IPA Japan, this marked the first occasion of holding an international event in full collaboration with a police organization, providing valuable experience that will help broaden the scope of IPA Japan's future activities. From this perspective, the FJW can be considered a great success.

Young Police Officers Seminar (YPOS)

2–9 August 2026

Future Meets Training – Digitalisation in Police Operational Training
Selm, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany
2–9 August 2026

The Young Police Officers' Seminar (YPOS) 2026 will take place from 2 to 9 August 2026 in Selm, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany.

YPOS is a flagship international professional development event of the International Police Association, designed to bring together young police officers from IPA Sections worldwide for a week of learning, exchange, and international cooperation.

The 2026 seminar will focus on digitalisation and modern technologies in police operational training, examining how innovative tools, methods, and learning technologies are shaping the future of policing.

The seminar will be hosted at the state-of-the-art training facilities of the LAFP North Rhine-Westphalia, providing an outstanding environment for future-oriented police training.

Members interested in participating should contact their National IPA Section for information on the nomination process and further details.

YPOS offers a unique opportunity to learn from international colleagues, exchange best practices, and contribute to shaping the future of policing.

National Conference of the Secretariat and Treasury of the IPA Romanian Section

The agenda covered a wide range of important topics for the ongoing development of the association. Discussions focused on the importance of online promotion, strategies for increasing regional engagement within IPA and updates on digitalization initiatives that have already been implemented or are planned for the near future. These sessions allowed participants to exchange practical ideas and insights applicable at both regional and national levels.

IPA Romanian Section proudly hosted its annual National Conference on Secretariat and Treasury, bringing together members of the regional committees from across the country for professional dialogue, knowledge sharing and collaborative discussions. This event provides a key opportunity to exchange experiences, discuss best practices and strengthen the work of IPA at both regional and national levels.

This edition of the conference took place in the picturesque town of Vișeu de Sus, Maramureș, offering participants not only a productive professional environment but also the chance to enjoy the unique cultural and natural attractions of the region. Over the course of three days, attendees engaged in interactive workshops, group discussions and brainstorming sessions, fostering connections and reinforcing the IPA community spirit.

IPA Romanian Section extends sincere thanks to all participants for their engagement and contribution, to the IPA regions of Maramureș for their invaluable support in organizing the event. Special thanks also go to all partners and invited guests who helped make the conference a memorable and successful experience.

The event not only strengthened professional ties within IPA but also showcased the association's commitment to collaboration, knowledge sharing and community building, ensuring that regional committee members continue to grow both personally and professionally. The National Conference on Secretariat and Treasury remains a key event of IPA Romania's calendar, fostering engagement, innovation, and the spirit of friendship across all regions.

Application Deadline Closing Soon

The closing date of 31 March 2026 is fast approaching for applications to the Arthur Troop Scholarship (ATS), one of the International Police Association's most valued professional development opportunities. The Arthur Troop Scholarship reflects the IPA's long-standing commitment to education, lifelong learning, and professional excellence, supporting members as they develop their skills and broaden their knowledge through recognised training and seminars.

What Is the Arthur Troop Scholarship?

Named in honour of Arthur Troop, the founder of the IPA, the scholarship provides financial support of up to €2,500 to successful applicants. The funding may be used to attend a seminar or professional training programme of your choice, aligned with your role and career development.

While the scholarship can be used for a wide range of professional learning opportunities, many recipients choose to attend seminars at the IPA Education Centre, IBZ Gimborn (Germany), which is internationally recognised for its high-quality policing and professional development programmes.

Who Can Apply?

The Arthur Troop Scholarship is open to all IPA members who:

- Have been members of the IPA for two years or more
- Are currently serving
- Can demonstrate how the proposed training will support their professional development

Many awardees opt for a course at IBZ Gimborn. As the current scholarship round is for seminars taking place in 2027, applicants are encouraged to review the current Gimborn seminar programme to gain an understanding of the types of courses that may be available.

Don't miss this opportunity to invest in your professional journey with the support of the International Police Association.

For full details, eligibility requirements, and application guidance, please consult the ATS Procedure Document or contact your National Section.

"Our Light": IPA Montenegro Brings Joy to Children in Podgorica

At the initiative of the IPA Section Montenegro, with the support of the Trade Union of the Police Administration of Montenegro, members of the Army of Montenegro, the Police Administration, the Communal Police Service and the Protection and Rescue Service organized a humanitarian activity for the children of deceased colleagues and children with disabilities in Podgorica on December 29, 2025.

Our guests were also children and youth from the Association of Parents of Children with Disabilities.

The activity was organized under the slogan "Our Light", during which children, occupied by rotations of military, police, fire and utility vehicles, had the opportunity to socialize with members of the aforementioned services.

At the end of the gathering, the children were given New Year's gifts.

Members of the IPA Section Montenegro once again demonstrated collegiality, care for the youngest and most vulnerable, and openness towards the community.

IPA Romania International Conference on the Danube – A Global Common Good

From 1–4 October 2025, Drobeta Turnu Severin, Romania, hosted the IPA International Conference entitled "Holistic Protection of the Danube – A Global Common Good, A Holistic Approach to Legislative Challenges in the European Danube Basin", organized by IPA Romanian Section, in cooperation with IPA Region 1 Mehedinți.

The conference brought together police officers from Romania and abroad, along with environmental and cultural heritage specialists, aiming to raise awareness of the importance of protecting the Danube's natural ecosystems, biodiversity, and cultural heritage.

The Danube River, Europe's second-longest river, crosses 10 countries and influences 19 nations through its basin, making it the most international river in the world. Special attention was given to the Danube Delta, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, highlighting the need for coordinated international action.

Delegations from Greece, Poland, Slovakia, Serbia, Moldova and North Macedonia participated in the event, strengthening international cooperation and the exchange of best practices within the IPA family.

Key topics included environmental crime prevention, protection of cultural heritage, modern training concepts for police officers, and enhanced cross-border cooperation to address environmental and heritage-related offences.

The conference reaffirmed IPA's commitment to international partnership, professional development, and the shared responsibility of safeguarding the Danube as a vital European and global resource.

Empowering Female Leaders in Law Enforcement IPA Seminar Report – IBZ Gimborn, 23–27 October 2025 Attendee: Ms Busisiwe Pharmphylia Rantise (South Africa)

The IPA seminar “Empowering Female Leaders in Law Enforcement” was held at IBZ Gimborn from 23–27 October 2025 and brought together women from different countries to learn, share, and empower one another.

Day 1 – Arrival & Induction

Upon arrival, I was warmly welcomed into a room filled with beautiful women, love, laughter, and kindness. I immediately felt at home and comfortable due to the genuine warmth shown by everyone.

Day 2 – Outdoor Programme

We visited the Police Training Camp in Brühl, where the Dog Unit Commander delivered an informative presentation on unit structure, functionality, success stories, and best practices. The dog search demonstrations for drugs, stolen items, and suspects were impressive and showcased excellent training and discipline. Crowd management and peace management demonstrations further highlighted the important role of police in community safety.

Later, we visited Cologne for brunch and sightseeing. Despite the cold and rain, the experience was memorable. The Cologne Cathedral and the vibrant FRÜH Brewery reflected how people come together to enjoy shared moments.

Day 3 – Empowerment Sessions

The session “How the IPA Works” by Marian Raducu deepened my understanding of IPA’s history and structure and highlighted the need for transformation and increased women representation in leadership.

“Understanding the Mindset of Gen Z” by Ruth Freth was an eye-opener, reminding us that it is okay to have different opinions and that understanding Gen Z requires openness and awareness.

“Empowered Women Empower Women” by Dr Dinah Marathe was deeply inspiring. Seeing a black female leader in such a senior position gave hope for transformation. Key lessons included knowing one’s purpose, emotional intelligence, guidance through leadership, and remembering that women are enough, unique, and powerful.

Arthur Troop Scholarship Testimonial

Presentations by Meike Ahlers on authentic leadership and Kimberly Geber on leadership and mental health emphasized self-awareness, integrity, accountability, resilience, and the importance of addressing mental health openly.

Day 4 – Inclusive Leadership & Crisis Leadership

Dr Jose Rooijirs delivered a powerful session on inclusive leadership, focusing on humility, the five pillars of inclusion, and the legacy we leave behind.

Dr Yogananda Pittman shared an inspiring crisis leadership journey following the events of 6 January 2021 in the USA. Her story highlighted organizational growth after trauma, courageous leadership, and empowering women based on capability and commitment.

Conclusion

As an Arthur Troop Scholarship Award winner, I shared my journey and passion for women empowerment and transformation. This seminar opened doors for me, inspired confidence, and strengthened my commitment to empowering others. I left Gimborn changed, empowered, and deeply grateful to IPA and the ATS opportunity.

A New Year of Friendship: IPA Montenegro Gathering in Saranda

The IPA Section Montenegro organised a New Year's gathering in Saranda, Albania, from December 30 to January 2, which brought together 106 members and friends of the section.

The group was organised a trip to the island of Corfu in Greece, a walk in Saranda, a coastal town in Albania, and a visit to Tirana, the capital of Albania.

This was another opportunity to develop friendship among IPA members and friends, to strengthen international cooperation, to exchange professional and personal experiences of IPA members and friends, and to get to know different cultures in different countries.

We would like to thank our colleague Ardijan Zaganjori for choosing the hotel where our guests were accommodated with special benefits, organising the excursion with a tourist guide, organising the crossing of the state border and the smooth transportation of our passengers with the assistance of a police patrol.

Biljana Dulović
President of the IPA Section Montenegro

The event was organised with the support of the Albania Section, whose president Skender Doda and deputy president Ardijan Zaganjori, with their families, stayed with our group in Saranda, where we celebrated the New Year together.

The kind hosts organised a New Year's cocktail party for our guests at midnight, at the bar on the hotel's roof, from where the guests had the opportunity to watch the New Year's fireworks over Saranda.
